

Student Public Policy Forum

Student Public Policy Forum (SPPF) provides students with learning opportunities that allow them to become educated and involved community members. Students will have an opportunity to meet with a variety of elected officials at the local, state, and federal level along with those working in the public policy arena. No prior political experience is necessary; students from all Maricopa colleges, backgrounds, majors, and experiences are encouraged to participate!

You can make a difference!

By joining SPPF you will:

- Develop and refine leadership skills
- Effectively advocate for and with your community
- Gain confidence and interact with public officials at the local, state, and federal level
- Communicate effectively in a political context

SPPF meets virtually every Friday afternoon during the Fall semester and every other Friday afternoon during the Spring semester beginning October 16, 2020

Students must enroll in POS285 class, Spring 2021
